

otumoetai foreshore/ Matua Saltmarsh

A popular picnic and paddling area with views of the inner harbour, Rangiwaea and Matakana Island.

Fergusson and Kulim parks are popular picnic spots, both with playgrounds.

Matua Saltmarsh, a coastal wetland of 21 hectares, has permanent protection for its ecological value to Tauranga. You can walk right around the peninsula at low tide but wear old shoes as it can get muddy in places.

Princess Road links to Gordon Carmichael Reserve (Map 5).
